

Please do not weaken Indiana's Telephone Privacy Legislation. The average person's privacy is continually threatened. My husband works at home and hopefully, without unnecessary interruptions.